County Commissioners,

LIEUTENANT F. F. KISLING-BURY.

Partly Eaten by his Comrades of the Greely Expedition.

The condition of the body of Lieutenant Fedrick F. Kislingbury, which was exhumed for examination, shows that all its most fleshy Hastings, etc. Etta W. Pierce conparts had been out away with sharp instruments, and there is no doubt that the miserable survivors of this young officer, sall or some of them are also a large variety of short artiate the missing portions. Since the cles, anecdotes, paragraphs, etc.; horrible discovery was made public, over 100 illustrations, and a beautiit has been admitted that six bodies ful colored frontispiece, "The Bit of these membrs of the expedition ter with the Sweet."
